(Finish Time 20.07.00hrs)

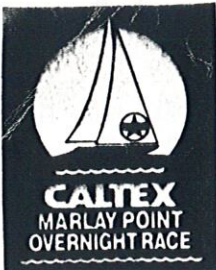

Creeping North through McMillan's Strait, with an opposing current and virtually no wind, the urge to retire early from the 25th MPONR must have been very strong.

After a better than expected crossing of Lake Wellington, a helpful current in McLennan's Strait and for most, a good spinnaker run in Lake Victoria, the wind dropped right out for about six hours. After a sleepless night, the trauma of an electrical storm and a thorough drenching with rain, crews hunched in their cockpits, willing their craft on inch by inch, contemplating on the one hand the lure of dry clothes, food and sleep, and on the other hand the long, slow remainder of the course.

We commiserate with those who had to withdraw, and congratulate those that pressed on, especially winners and place-getters. For the finishers, the satisfaction of success will long outlive the frustrations of the day.

Taken all round, we all had a good weekend, with competitors respectful of the efforts of those running the event, who in turn observed a good spirit of sportsmanship and tolerance in the fleet.

Thank you all, and come back next year!
